New Member Mini-Profile

Sue Doeden

Originally from: Born in Indiana; grew up in Roseville, Minnesota, moved to Bemidji from Fargo in July 2001.

Education: Graduated from NDSU in 1992.

Business: Dynamic Directions

About her work: I work with people who want to be more successful in business and with businesses that want to develop extraordinary people. I offer training and consulting in the areas of leadership development, attitude and goal achievement, networking and a systematic approach to building business through word of mouth marketing and developing loyal customers. I am also certified to administer the DISC Personal Profile System.

Family: Husband, Dennis, Publisher of the Pioneer; son, Dan, married and lives in Fargo with his wife, Tammy and daughter Emily, 1 ½ years old; son, Andy, 22, Senior at Texas Christian University of Forth Worth, TX; pet, Wrigley, our 5 year old golden retriever.

Other Interests: I'm looking forward to our first full summer in Bemidji, biking the trails, hiking the state parks and boating. I also love to read cookbooks and try great new recipes to share with friends.

Rotary Around the World

Members of the Rotary Club of Cali-San Fernando (Columbia), Interactors, and Rotaractors recently worked side by side with residents of a shelter for former street children to give a fresh coat of paint to the youngsters' classrooms. The club is one of a number of organizations that financially assist the Fundacion Sal y Luz, which houses, educates, nourishes, and nurtures 31 youths.

Small groups of Rotarians from Turkey, Bulgaria, and Greece have been convening annually for two years in pursuit of peace and friendship in the Balkans. "These meetings have no political, religious, or ethnic motives," reports participant Namik K. Coleneken of the Rotary Club of Edirne-Mimar Sinan, Turkey. Emerging from the clubs' international cooperation and sister-city agreements, plans to build links among their countries' training centers for disabled children, and youth exchanges.

Basketball Names

Seattle Supersonics – Named after a supersonic jet proposed by Seattle-based Boeing in the last 1960s.

Washington Bullets – Originally from the Baltimore Bullets, they were named in honor of a nearby ammunition factory that had supplied American troops during World War II
